HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS TO PRESENT MATTER TO BOARD

Monessen Professor's Case to be Heard at Meeting Tonight

CITIZENS ARE INCENSED

Want Man Removed from Place in Schools, It is Stated

This evening at Monessen the school board will hold a meeting at which it is thought that the case against the high school teacher of that place, J. P. Pollitt, who, it is said one day last week struck Morris Ney a student of the high school, and broke his nose, will be taken up. It is thought that a man will either be discharged or asked to present his resignation. A petition will be presented by the high school pupils, charging incompetency and brutality, together with various other things embodied in a petition actually covered by the two general charges. Two students of High School, Carlton Ketchem, and Eugene Miller will appear before the board and speak against the man. It is alleged that he has on several

Young Mining Students Visit Here

This week there are five students from the University of Pittsburgh in Charleroi spending considerable time at the Charleroi Coal mines in an effort to learn practical mining. Those of the party are J. H. Crea, W. H. Humphries, C. M. Peters, J. S. MacLeod and K. L. Mohler. The men are students in mining and in the visiting of the mines they secure a better knowledge of the workings and get a better practical idea.

LABOR DAY TO BE OBSERVED APRIL 1 AT BROWNSVILLE

President Feehan and Stephen Whetzel Will Speak

LOCALS TO TURN OUT

The annual celebration of the establishment of the eight-hour day for the mine-workers will be observed next Thursday in the Monongahela valley at Brownsville. This will be the eleventh anniversary of the eight hour day.

At Brownsville there will be a big parade, in which there will be a large number of miners of this valley take part. There will be a number of bands that will furnish martial music for the day.

Among the speakers of the day will be President Francis Feehan of the Fifth District United Mine Workers. Mr. Feehan will speak of the benefits that have been derived from the establishment of the eight-hour day. Another speaker will be Stephen Whetzel, a member of the National Executive Board. He will speak along the same topic as Mr. Feehan.

Locals from all along the valley will be present and take part in the parade. There will be a large number from Charleroi.

Cantata to be Most Elaborate of the Kind

What will be the most elaborate of the kind ever given in Charleroi will be the cantata, "The Lilliputians," by children of the public schools, in the school hall on April 22nd and 23rd. This is being arranged by Prof. W. D. Wright, superintendent of the schools. The air will be given under the direction of the F. H. Decker company of New York city, and they will send representative here to assist in the singing.

For the cantata it will require at least 150 children. There will be my parts and these will all be taken by the school children. The cantata will be given in costume, and it is expected to realize much on the affair. Advertising will begin soon, when people will have an opportunity of seeing the exact nature of the entertainment.

The proceeds of the affair will go towards the financing of the school children's outing, which is held annually. Where the outing will be this year is yet a question, but doubtless it will be at the same place as formerly, Eldora Park.

Cummins Gets Hearing Held Off a Week

E. E. Cummins, of Washington, on who the court issued a rule the past week to show cause why the order of the court of May 4, 1908, granting his private detective's license, should not be set aside, filed his answer in open court this morning through his attorney, A. M. Templeton. He places all the blame, according to his answer, on the clerk of courts, alleging that the clerk was always busy when he went to get his license.

The Citizens League gave notice that it expected to produce certain evidence that, notwithstanding that Mr. Cummins had never taken out his license or paid the required fee, he had acted as a detective, during the year and had advertised himself as a private detective. Mr. Cummins, upon being informed that he would have to meet certain evidence, through his attorney asked that the hearing be postponed until Monday next at 10 o'clock. As to his allegation that the clerk of courts was busy and had delayed getting him the license, it is understood that the license could not have been given him until he had shown a receipt showing that he had paid the required fee of $25.

PA. W. VA. LEAGUE CIRCUIT IS NOT COMPLETE AS YET

Meeting at Uniontown Yesterday Results in Little Business

GRONNINGER CONFIDENT

Although the representatives from the towns in the Pennsylvania-West Virginia circuit yesterday spent five hours discussing the situation, the affairs of the league are as unsettled as ever. There are several difficulties which must be overcome before the success of the league is assured and the magnates are not prepared to make the necessary preparations for the season until they are overcome. The two committees appointed by President James Gronninger at the last meeting presented their schedules, but both were unsatisfactory and another schedule will be drafted this week by President Gronninger and Messrs. Haymond, of Fairmont, Hogue, of Clarksburg, and Shuster, of Grafton. This schedule will be mailed to the managers of the different teams and a vote will be taken by mail. If the majority agree on it then it will be adopted at once as the official playing schedule.

A movement has been started in West Virginia for the free transportation of both the home and visiting clubs between Fairmont and Clarksburg. The Clarksburg and Fairmont Traction company is willing to grant this favor providing the West Penn company takes the same action in Fayette county. The proposition will be taken up at once with the West Penn and the success of the league will depend upon the decision. If this can be accomplished the traveling expenses of the league will be reduced nearly 50 per cent. The Fairmont company will issue passes to all teams on and from the park during the coming season.

Several prominent Morgantown men have applied for a franchise and are eager to enter the professional ranks. Their application was presented at the session yesterday and in case of a vacancy they will be given a berth.

In talking of the condition of the league last night President Gronninger stated that there would undoubtedly be a Pennsylvania-West Virginia league, but the circuit has not yet been decided. The playing schedule will be adopted and the circuit completed this week.

The representatives present yesterday were Messrs. Haymond, Hogue, Shuster, Straub, Brown and Swickey.

Plead Guilty to Embezzlement

L. B. and Robert Pinkerton, two nice appearing young men, entered pleas of guilty on Monday in the county courts to the charge of embezzlement as agent. The private prosecutor was J. S. Graves, of Washington. It is alleged that the two young men had been employed to sell a preparation called "Cleanall." They went from Washington to Canonsburg and there disposed of 46 packages. The money for this, the private prosecutor alleged, was not turned back to him.

Attorney Davis, of Canonsburg, appeared for the young men and explained the circumstance of the cause. According to the attorney's story the money was spent for car fare and boarding and lodging. At Canonsburg he said the young men had secured employment in the tin mill, expecting to pay the money back to Mr. Graves when they received their pay. Following their arrest the private prosecutor agreed to settle for $5 and costs, but the young men had no money. The father of the boys resides at Follinsbee, W. Va., and refused to advance any money. The young men are strangers in this community. The court sentenced each to pay the costs, a fine of $1 and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days.

Birthday Party.
A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Kelly at their residence, 206 Lookout avenue, Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Elizabeth, it being her sixth birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent by the young folks, who responded to the invitations.

PROF. WRIGHT TO RESIGN FROM SUPERINTENDENCY

Sues To Recover Premium Amount

George G. Billmire, of Monessen, has brought an action in assumpsit against C. M. Lamb, of the same place to collect the sum of $422.70, with interest from December 5, 1908. Billmire, who is an agent for the Philadelphia Life Insurance company, wrote the defendant for $3,000, he says. The defendant was to pay the premium inside of 30 days. When the time expired the plaintiff, trusting in the promises and honor of the defendant advanced the premium, amounting to $387.70, he avers. On December 5, the defendant gave his check for $165. The remainder of the premium remains unpaid.

EDITOR COUSE OF CLIPPER-MONITOR DIES AT HIS HOME

Prominent Brownsville Man Succumbs to Virulent Disease

Word came this morning from Brownsville of the death of Editor E. P. Couse of the Clipper-Monitor, of that place, at about 5:30 o'clock. Death was sudden, it being entirely unexpected. It was due to pneumonia. Mr. Couse was about 45 years of age.

There are four children and the wife left to mourn the demise of the father and husband. The Couse family has resided in Brownsville for several years and were among the best known people there, therefore his death comes as a shock to the community.

Mr. Couse has been the editor of the Clipper-Monitor for over a year, since the Monitor absorbed the Clipper. Before that time he was the editor of the Monitor.

The deceased was a member of the Monongahela Valley Press association, being a favorite with the members. It is likely that that body will assist in the making of the funeral arrangements. The date of the funeral has not been announced as yet.

SIPE LOSES OUT FOR CONSTABLE

Upon petition of 28 citizens of the East ward of the borough of Canonsburg the court yesterday appointed Samuel A. Moyers constable of that ward to take the place of S. H. Swan, Jr., whose resignation was presented to the court and accepted.

Two petitions were before the court, one asking for the appointment of Mr. Moyers and the other asking for the appointment of W. H. Sipe, ex-corporator, who last Monday was refused a private detective's license. In making the appointment the court took into consideration the number of signatures to each petition. There were 29 signatures attached to Mr. Sipe's petition.

Health of Daughter Compels Him To Leave This Section.

WILL GO TO KANSAS

Has Had No Offer To Take Up School Work Elsewhere.

Prof. W. D. Wright, the superintendent of the Charleroi schools has tendered his resignation to the school board, and the matter will doubtless be taken up at the coming meeting on Thursday evening of this week. If however President Manon of the board does not return from his trip to the West by that time, however, there may be nothing done in the matter.

Prof. Wright has offered his resignation, not from the fact that he has had any other offer, or not from any desire to leave the town, but on account of the health of his little daughter, Lillian, for whom a better climate is recommended. The resignation is that it takes effect at the close of the present term or sooner at the discretion of the board. Prof. Wright's daughter has been suffering from catarrhal and bronchial trouble and does not get better, but rather worse, and it seems necessary that she be taken to another section of the country where the atmospheric conditions are better. It is likely that the family will go to Kansas, where relatives of Prof. Wright live.

The action of the popular superintendent comes as a great surprise to his many friends here as well as the members of the school board. Under the conditions it is likely that the resignation will be accepted, although it is doubtful if it would under any other. The school board is well pleased with the work that has been done by Prof. Wright during his time here, which fact was attested to by his election to the superintendency of the schools.

Who Prof. Wright's successor will be, in case the resignation is accepted, has not been suggested even as yet. The direct feeling is that it would be hard to get a man to fill the place as well as the present incumbent, and with the same degree of general satisfaction to the patrons. Prof. Wright has been a worker and not a theorist, and the school system in Charleroi has been greatly improved under him.

MEMORIAL SERVICES OF EAGLES LODGE

The Charleroi Aerie of Eagles on Sunday afternoon held their memorial services for the dead brothers, at the Palace theatre. The principal speaker of the day was Thomas White, of McKeesport who eulogized the dead and spoke of the high ideals that the living should have. Local ministers assisted in the services. There was special music rendered.

Services this Week
There will be services at the First Presbyterian church all this week with the exception of Saturday. Rev. Howard of Fayette City and Rev. Harvey of California will be the special speakers secured for the week.

has completed his canvass of the merchants of the county and is now ready to begin the work on his books that are turned over to the commissioners.

Mr. Huffman believes that he made a thorough canvass as possible and that he did not miss one firm in the county that is liable for the mercantile tax. The work was mapped out in a systematic manner and each day a certain section was thoroughly gone over and every little store found. The return will show about 1,700 retail places of business, not including the brokers, billiard and pool rooms, and wholesale places. It will be a month before the mercantile appraiser's list is announced, as it will take considerable time to make it the list as per the canvass.

Cause of Strikes.

As a rule it will be found that the general cause of strikes among miners and other organized bodies is hasty action and bad judgment. Whether such was the cause in the up river mines or not, we are not in a position to say, but it may have been. At any rate the miners are back at work now, and the temporary enforced shutdown seems not to have had any bad effects beyond the keeping out of work for a time many of the employees. In the cause of the strikes it is mostly the hasty and impulsive action on the part of the operators or the employees and occasionally both. This added to obstinate oftentimes makes much trouble. Each and every miner should be taught to never go on strike without having a thorough knowledge of the situation. Then again the operators should never take such action, unwarranted, of course, which will cause their employees to become resentful, and thereafter be a source of annoyance to them. All have rights and these should be regarded when there is a prospect of disagreement between the miners and operators. Again if the operators would condescend to allow themselves to become on intimate terms with the miners, and not maintain such strained relations with them, and thus get their good will, the mutual understanding would be such that the greater part of the strikes might be prevented.

Committed Murders Galore

St. Petersburg sends out a remarkable story concerning the exploits of a woman named Popova who has been arrested in the town of Samara and who is said to have committed no less than three hundred murders during the last thirty years. Her specialty was the removal of uncongenial husbands. An unhappily mated wife was able to secure her services for a small fee. She gave the wife the potent poison which was administered to the unsuspecting husband in his food or drink. She has been brought face to face with justice by the confession of one of the clients who was tormented by remorse and seeks ease of conscience by denouncing the poisoner. The latter protests that she never murdered a woman and did excellent work in freeing unhappy wives from their tyrants.

Making Most of Today.

"If I were to die tomorrow, I would make the most of today," a man answered in reply to the query of Rev. Bobbitt of the First Christian church, in getting material for the first of his series of special sermons, and thus struck the truest chord. "The most of today" means considerable and is more than a man could explain were he to cover a ream of paper with writing. It means that during every moment he would fill in with good deeds, and earnestly help others to a realization of what is just. It is impossible to say more, but it brings one to the thought that why should not a person make the most of every day. That alone would be the subject for a good sermon.

Electric Sparks

Those ruins of an ancient city discovered in the mountains of California are all one-room dwellings. That may be one reason why their inhabitants left.

A New York girl has just startled her mother by showing her a marriage certificate dated last Christmas. Most girls don't keep the secret that long, but it must not be forgotten that last Christmas was still "leap year."

Who weeps with you when you are sad, and laughs with you when you are glad, and smiles at you when you are mad? The editor. Who has to be both kind and wise and never—hardly ever—lies, and when he does greater surprise? The editor. Who owns a heart as well as cheek, possessed of spirit, proud yet meek, and lives on $400 a week? The editor.—Exchange.

Erata—We print the item as we found it but feel sure "week" in the above should be "year" or else the decimal point was left out after the figure 4. The average editor earns $400 a week, all right, or thinks he does, but he doesn't get it.

Through the appropriations for the institutions may suffer from lack of revenues, there is no good reason why charity should suffer. On the contrary it should be more active.

Oklahoma is trying to prove that it is not in the highway of civilization to the extent usually supposed. It is having another farewell tour of the real Indian war.

The New York railroad commission is going to compel the Interborough trolley company to run for women and children only, but there is a suspicion that consideration from the fair sex is not the only motive. Perhaps it's only a deep-laid scheme of the men to get seats now and then.

Estimates have been made indicating a yearly income of $100,000 for Mr. Bryan from his lectures. Evidently there are many people who would rather pay to hear Mr. Bryan talk than contribute to his campaign funds.

Mr. Roosevelt is learning to shave himself. No doubt there are some wealthy malefactors who would like to have the job just once.

A Pittsburg man complains to the police that he had his pocket picked as he crossed on the ferry into New York. Evidently hadn't heard of the pay-as-you-enter plan.

The present style of women's hairdressing has made it necessary to cut a "V" shaped space in the back of their hats; but a man's pocketbook does not get off so easily.

The signs are that the new President's occasional contributions to the Congressional Record will not so much hinder that lively contemporary in making the mails.

A Savage Editor

The average country editor is a chump. He will submit to the abuse of some old, misery skinfint or Shylock in the community for years, and when death in all its merciful kindness removes the worthless old carcass to a place that has possibly been eager and yawning for years to even up his devilish score, Mr. Editor, in laudatory language and half-column space, will pour out his hypocritical sympathy touchingly, yet, pathetically. Not so with the Call. The next old reprobate that shuffles off may die with this troubled fact on his mind, that we are going to everlastingly lambast him as soon as we have proof that his grouchy life has been snuffed out and he is on his way home. Some of you old reprobates, be you one or many, had better take due notice and come in and "make good" with us before the last call, for there is not a drop of sentimental hypocrisy or sniveling pretense in our heart.—Purcell Call.

ECZEMA LODGES IN THE SKIN

Not a Blood Disease—Cured by Oil of Wintergreen Compound

For many years eczema was supposed to be a blood disease and was erroneously treated as such, but now the best authorities agree that eczema is only a skin disease and must be cured through the skin. The eminent skin specialist Dr. D. D. Dennis, first discovered the eczema germ and his discovery was quickly taken up in Germany and France.

To kill the eczema germ and at the same time heal the skin, Dr. Dennis compounded oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. The remedy is a liquid, not a mere salve, hence it sinks right into the pores of the skin. Washing with this oil of wintergreen compound seems to take away the itch at once; soon the scales drop away and the disease disappears. The prescription has now been used so long as to have proven its absolute merit and we do not hesitate to express our confidence in D. D. D. Prescription as used with D. D. D. Soap.

Last Number of High School Lecture Course

Edward P. Elliott the last on the High School entertainment course appeared at the school ball last night. The attendance was not what it might have been, but all present were much pleased, and the entertainment was a fitting one to close the present platform season in this place.

Mr. Elliott took for his topic, "The Man of the Hour." He drew his characters from the play of this name, and acted the various parts, which drew from them the best thoughts. Those present thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment, which was in reality better than the play itself, for the idea of the author was more thoroughly carried out than it could have been by a company of actors.

The committee of guarantors of the course at the end of this number find themselves to be in debt $110.50. There will likely be nothing done in the matter however, the members of the committee making up the deficiency from their own pockets. It is more than likely that there will not be any course attractions in Charleroi the coming year. If so some other committee will have to take the matter up.

Sarver Doesn't Want to Pay Wife Alimony

In the divorce proceedings of Nettie C. Sarver against John W. Sarver, a former well known officer of Monongahela and also former alderman, of the rule on the respondent to show cause why he should not pay his wife alimony, the respondent has filed his answer. Sarver is now a policeman at South Brownsville, Fayette county.

In his answer he denies that he is guilty of cruel and barbarous treatment or that he ever offered such indignities to his wife as to make her life burdensome, and compelling her to withdraw from her home. He sets forth that in October of 1908 his wife had him arrested for desertion and non-support and that at that time they entered into a mutual agreement, where by he was to pay her $20 a month in lieu of all demands, suits and controversies. By this agreement, he avers, they agreed to live apart from each other for the rest of their natural lives, to carry on whatever business they saw fit, and to reside wherever they pleased. This agreement he alleges was excepted by both.

He avers that he carried out the agreement until the filing of the libel in divorce, paying her $5 each week. As to the wages that he makes he denies that he is earning from $15 to $100 a month, but avers he is employed as a policeman at $60 a month. As to his property he says he has one lot in this county valued at $150 and a lot in Allegheny county, valued at $200. He avers he has been advised and believes that he cannot legally be required to pay the libellant the alimony that she demands, and he asks that the rule be dismissed.

The Boston Belles

Gaiety, frivolity, hilarity and high jingles will bring matters to a lively climax during the evening of April 1st, at the Cylea theatre, where the Boston Belles will play a most welcomed visit. Those who are fond of clean, but funny burlesque will find just the real thing in "Just Before the Battle, Mother" and "What Joy in Joyland," two humorous and well-pleasing farces, with almost endless amusing alterations. Quite an array of vaudeville features add to the merit of Boston Belles offerings, which is considered the strongest card Manager Hastings has presented this season.

There is a certain dash and go to the performance affording a continuous whirl of merit and display of color, brilliancy and beauty.

A score of fascinating young women furnish a beautiful frame to the lively picture, which presents itself not only in bright and glittering colors but which prominently display an over-bubbling fountain of wholesome and delightful comedy.

The management has been very careful in the selection of the female members of the company. The girls with this organization are bewitching and attractive and do not belong to the species of faded beauties.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS TO PRESENT MATTER TO BOARD

Monessen Professor's Case to be Heard at Meeting Tonight

Want Man Removed from Place in Schools, It is Stated

This evening at Monessen the school board will hold a meeting at which time it is thought that the case against the high school teacher of that place, J. I. Pollitt, who, it is said one day last week struck Morris Ney, a student in the high school, and broke his nose, will be taken up. It is thought that the man will either be discharged or asked to present his resignation.

A petition will be presented by the high school pupils, charging incompetency and brutality, together with various other things embodied in practically covered by the two general charges. Two students of High School, Carlton Ketchum, and Eugene Vetter will appear before the body and speak against the man.

It is alleged that he has on several occasions

Young Mining Students Visit Here

This week there are five students from the University of Pittsburgh in Charleroi spending considerable time in the Charleroi Coal mine in an effort to learn practical mining. Those of the party are J. H. Crea, W. H. Humphries, C. M. Peters, J. S. MacLeod and K. I. Mohler. The men are students in mining and in the visiting of the mines they secure a better knowledge of the workings and get a better practical idea.

LABOR DAY TO BE OBSERVED APRIL 1 AT BROWNSVILLE

President Feehan and Stephen Whetzel Will Speak

LOCALS TO TURN OUT

The annual celebration of the establishment of the eight-hour day for the mine-workers will be observed next Thursday in the monongahela valley at Brownsville. This will be the eleventh anniversary of the eight-hour day.

At Brownsville there will be a big parade, in which there will be a large number of miners of this valley take part. There will be a number of bands that will furnish martial music for the day.

Among the speakers of the day will be President Francis Feehan of the Fifth district United Mine Workers. Mr. Feehan will speak of the benefits that have been derived from the establishment of the eight-hour day. Another speaker will be Stephen Whetzel, a member of the National Executive Board. He will speak along the same topic as Mr. Feehan.

Locals from all along the valley will be present and take part in the parade. There will be a large number from Charleroi.

Cantata to be Most Elaborate of the Kind

What will be the most elaborate of the kind will be the cantata, "The Lilliputians," by children of the public schools, in the School hall on April 22nd and 23rd. This is being arranged by Prof. W. D. Wright, superintendent of the schools. The air will be given under the direction of the F. B. Decker company of New York city, and they will send representative here to assist in the singing.

For the cantata it will require at least 170 children. There will be many parts and these will all be taken by the school children. The cantata will be given in costume, and it is expected to realize much on the affair. Advertising will begin soon, when people will have an opportunity of seeing the exact nature of the entertainment.

The proceeds of the affair will go towards the financing of the school children's outing, which is held annually. Where the outing will be this year is yet a question, but doubtless it will be at the same place as formerly, Eldora Park.

Cummins Gets Hearing Held Off a Week

E. E. Cummins, of Washington, on whom the court issued a rule the past week to show cause why the order of the court of May 4, 1908, granting his private detective's license, should not be set aside, filed his answer in open court this morning through his attorney, A. M. Templeton. He places all the blame, according to his answer, on the clerk of courts, alleging that the clerk was always busy when he went to get his license.

The Citizens League gave notice that it expected to produce certain evidence, that notwithstanding that Mr. Cummins had never taken out his license or paid the required fee, he had acted as a detective during the year and had advertised himself as a private detective. Mr. Cummins, upon being informed that he would have to meet certain evidence, through his attorney asked that the hearing be postponed until Monday next, at 10 o'clock.

As to his allegation that the clerk of courts was busy and had delayed in giving him his license, it is stated that the clerk of courts could not have given him a license until he had shown a certificate of qualification and paid the required fee.

PA. W. VA. LEAGUE CIRCUIT IS NOT COMPLETE AS YET

Meeting at Uniontown Yesterday Results in Little Business

GRONINGER CONFIDENT

Although the representatives from the two in the Pennsylvania-West Virginia circuit yesterday spent five hours discussing the situation, the affairs of the league are as unsettled as ever. There are several difficulties which must be overcome before the success of the league is assured and the magnates are not prepared to make the necessary preparations for the season until they are overcome. The two committees appointed by President James Groninger at the last meeting presented their schedules, but both were unsatisfactory and another schedule will be drafted this week by President Groninger and Messrs. Haymond, of Fairmont, Hogue, of Clarksburg, and Shuster, of Grafton. This schedule will be mailed to the managers of the different teams and a vote will be taken by mail. If the majority agree on it then it will be adopted at once as the official playing schedule.

A movement has been started in West Virginia for the free transportation of both the home and visiting clubs between Fairmont and Clarksburg. The Clarksburg and Fairmont Traction company is willing to grant this favor providing the West Penn company takes the same action in Fayette county. The proposition will be taken up at once with the West Penn and the success of the league will depend upon the decision. If this can be accomplished the traveling expenses of the league will be reduced nearly 50 per cent. The Fairmont company will issue passes to all teams on and from the park during the coming season.

Several prominent Morgantown men have applied for a franchise and are eager to enter the professional ranks. Their application was presented at the session yesterday and in case of a vacancy they will be given a berth.

In talking of the condition of the league last night President Groninger stated that there would undoubtedly be a Pennsylvania-West Virginia league, but the circuit has not yet been decided. The playing schedule will be adopted and the circuit completed this week.

The representatives present yesterday were Messrs. Haymond, Hogue, Shuster, Straub, Brown and Swicker.

Plead Guilty to Embezzlement

L. B. and Robert Pinkerton, two nice appearing young men, entered pleas of guilty on Monday in the county courts to the charge of embezzlement as agent. The private prosecutor was J. S. Graves, of Washington. It is alleged that the two young men had been employed to sell a preparation called "Cleanall."

They went from Washington to Canonsburg and there disposed of 46 packages. The money for this, the private prosecutor alleged, was not turned back to him.

Attorney Davis, of Canonsburg, appeared for the young men and explained the circumstance of the cause. According to the attorney's story the money was spent for car fare and boarding and lodging. At Canonsburg he said the young men had secured employment in the tin mill, expecting to pay the money back to Mr. Graves when they received their pay.

Following their arrest the private prosecutor agreed to settle for $5 and costs, but the young men had no money. The father of the boys resides at Pollansbee, W. Va., and refused to advance any money. The young men are strangers in this community. The court sentenced each to pay the costs, a fine of $1 and underwent confinement in the county jail for 30 days.

PROF. WRIGHT TO RESIGN FROM SUPERINTENDENCY

Sues To Recover Premium Amount

George G. Billmire, of Monessen, has brought an action in assumpsit against C. M. Lamb, of the same place to collect the sum of $422.70, with interest from December 3, 1908. Billmire, who is an agent for the Philadelphia Life Insurance company, wrote the defendant for $3,000, he says. The defendant was to pay the premium inside of 30 days. When the time expired the plaintiff, trusting in the promises and honor of the defendant advanced the premium, amounting to $387.70, he avers. On December 5, the defendant gave him a check for $165. The remainder of the premium remains unpaid.

Prominent Brownsville Man Succumbs to Virulent Disease

Word came this morning from Brownsville of the death of Editor E. P. Couse of the Clipper-Monitor, of that place, at about 5:30 o'clock. Death was sudden, it being entirely unexpected. It was due to pneumonia. Mr. Couse was about 45 years of age.

There are four children and the wife left to mourn the demise of the father and husband. The Couse family has resided in Brownsville for several years and were among the best known people there, therefore his death comes as a shock to the community.

Mr. Couse has been the editor of the Clipper-Monitor for over a year, since the Monitor absorbed the Clipper. Before that time he was the editor of the Monitor.

The deceased was a member of the Monongahela Valley Press association, being a favorite with the members. It is likely that that body will assist in the making of the funeral arrangements. The date of the funeral has not been announced as yet.

SIPE LOSES OUT FOR CONSTABLE

Upon petition of 28 citizens of the East ward of the borough of Canonsburg the court yesterday appointed Samuel A. Moyers constable of that ward to take the place of S. H. Swan, Jr., whose resignation was presented to the court and accepted.

Two petitions were before the court, one asking for the appointment of Mr. Moyers and the other asking for the appointment of W. H. Sipe, ex-corer, who last Monday was refused a private detective's license. In making the appointment the court took into consideration the number of signers to each petition. There were 20 signatures attached to Mr. Sipe's petition.

Health of Daughter Compels Him To Leave This Section.

WILL GO TO KANSAS

Has Had No Offer To Take Up School Work Elsewhere.

Prof. W. D. Wright, the superintendent of the Charleroi schools has tendered his resignation to the school board, and the matter will doubtless be taken up at the coming meeting on Thursday evening of this week. If however President Manoo of the board does not return from his trip to the West by that time, however, there may be nothing done in the matter.

Prof. Wright has offered his resignation, not from the fact that he has had any other offer, or not from any desire to leave the town, but on account of the health of his little daughter, Lillian, for whom a better climate is recommended. The resignation is that it takes effect at the close of the present term or sooner at the discretion of the board. Prof. Wright's daughter has been suffering from catarrhal and bronchial trouble and does not get better, but rather worse, and it seems necessary that she be taken to another section of the country where the atmospheric conditions are better. It is likely that the family will go to Kansas, where relatives of Prof. Wright live.

The action of the popular superintendent comes as a great surprise to his many friends here as well as the members of the school board. Under the conditions it is likely that the resignation will be accepted, although it is doubtful if it would under any other. The school board is well pleased with the work that has been done by Prof. Wright during his time here, which fact was attested to by his election to the superintendency of the schools.

Who Prof. Wright's successor will be in case the resignation is accepted, has not been suggested even as yet. The direct suggestion that it would be hard to get a man to fill the place as well as the present incumbent, and with the same degree of general satisfaction to the patrons. Prof. Wright has been a worker and not a theorist, and the school system in Charleroi has been greatly improved under him.

MEMORIAL SERVICES OF EAGLES LODGE

The Charleroi Aerie of Eagles on Sunday afternoon held their memorial services for the dead brothers, at the Palace theatre. The principal speaker of the day was Thomas White, of McKeesport who eulogized the dead and spoke of the high ideals that the living should have. Local ministers assisted in the services. There was special music rendered.

Services this Week
There will be services at the First Presbyterian church all this week with the exception of Saturday. Rev. Howard of Fayette City and Rev. Harvey of California will be the special speakers secured for the week.

Mr. Hoffman has completed his canvass of the merchants of the county and is now ready to begin the work on his books that are turned over to the commissioners.

Mr. Hoffman believes that he made a thorough canvass as possible and that he did not miss one firm in the county that is liable for the mercantile tax. The work was mapped out in a systematic manner and each day certain section was thoroughly gone over and every little store found.

The return will show about 1,700 small places of business, not including the brokers, billiard and pool rooms, and wholesale places. It will be a month before the mercantile appraiser's list is announced, as it will take considerable time to make out the list as per the canvass.

COUNCILMAN PAYS COSTS IN SUIT

Claysville, March 30. — After having W. A. Egan arrested on the charge of assault and battery on the hearing set for today, Henry Danley, the prosecutor for some reason paid the costs and dismissed the case before the hour set for hearing. Danley, a councilman, is said to have had some trouble with Egan over the telephone question which is now a great issue in Claysville. It is stated Danley walked into Egan's hotel to continue the discussion and was ordered out by Egan. He refused to go and then it is alleged Egan threw him out bodily with the result that Danley preferred charges of assault and battery against him.

Cause of Strikes.

As a rule it will be found that the general cause of strikes among miners and other organized bodies is hasty action and bad judgment. Whether such was the cause in the up river mines or not, we are not in a position to say, but it may have been. At any rate the miners are back at work now, and the temporary enforced shutdown seems not to have had any bad effects beyond the keeping out of work for a time many of the employes.
In the cause of the strikes it is mostly the hasty and impulsive action on the part of the operators or the employes and occasionally both.
This added to obstinacy oftentimes makes much trouble. Each and every miner should be taught to never go on strike without having a thorough knowledge of the situation.
Then again the operators should never take such action, unwarranted, of course, which will cause their employees to become resentful, and thereafter be a source of annoyances to them.
All have rights and these should be regarded when there is a prospect of disagreement between the miners and operators. Again if the operators would condescend to allow themselves to become on intimate terms with the miners, and not maintain such strained relations with them, and thus get their good will, the mutual understanding would be such that the greater part of the strikes might be prevented.

Committed Murders Galore.

St. Petersburg sends out a remarkable story concerning the exploits of a woman named Pupova who has been arrested in the town of Samara and who is said to have committed no less than three hundred murders during the last thirty years. Her specialty was the removal of uncongenial husbands. An unhappily-mated wife was able to secure her services for a small fee. She gave the wife the potent poison which was administered to the unsuspecting husband in his food or drink. She has been brought into the city with justice by the confession of one of the clients who was tormented by remorse and seeks ease of conscience by denouncing the poisoner. The latter protests that she never murdered a woman and did excellent work in freeing unhappy wives from their tyrants.

Making Most of Today.

"If I were to die tomorrow, I would make the most of today," a man answered in reply to the query of Rev. Boblitt of the First Christian church, in getting material for the first of his series of special sermons.
and thus struck the truest chord.
"The most of today" means considerable and is more than a man could explain were he to cover a ream of paper with writing. It means that every minute should be made full of with good deeds, and earnestly help others to a realization of what is just.
It is impossible to say more, but it brings one to the thought that why should not a person make the most of every day. That alone would be the subject for a good sermon.

Electric Sparks

Those ruins of an ancient city discovered in the mountains of California are all one-room dwellings.
That may be one reason why their inhabitants left.

A New York girl has just startled her mother by showing her a marriage certificate dated last Christmas.
Most girls don't keep the secret that long, but it must not be forgotten that last Christmas was still "leap year."

Who weeps with you when you are sad, and laughs with you when you are glad, and smiles at you when you are mad? The editor. Who has to be both kind and wise and never-hardly ever-lies, and when he does create surprise? The editor. Who owns a heart as well as cheek, possessed of spirit, proud yet meek, and lives on $400 a week? The editor.—
Exchange.

Erata—We print the item as we found it but feel sure "week" in the above should be "year" or else the decimal point was left out after the figure 4. The average editor earns $400 a week, all right, or thinks he does, but he doesn't get it.

When a girl tosses her head she should be sure the young man is a good catch.

Some fellows are so slow that they wouldn't even make successful pall bearers.

You can't beat learning into a boy in spite of the fact that a switch will make him smart.

A girl can easily twist a fellow around her finger, but the trouble is he gets broke so easily.

In New York some iconoclasts are calling on the Coroner to show reason why his office should not be abolished.

If the Coroner is frank the reason will be given is that he needs the income.

Through the appropriations for the institutions may suffer from lack of revenues, there is no good reason why charity should suffer. On the contrary it should be more active.

Oklahoma is trying to prove that it is not in the high of civilization to the extent usually supposed. It is having another farewell tour of the real Indian war.

The New York railroad commission is going to compel the Interborough trolley company to run for women and children only, but there is a suspicion that consideration from the fair sex is not the only motive. Perhaps it's only a deep-laid scheme of the men to get seats now and then.

Estimates have been made indicating a yearly income of $100,000 for Mr. Bryan from his lectures. Evidently there are many people who would rather pay to hear Mr. Bryan talk than contribute to his campaign funds.

Mr. Roosevelt is learning to shave himself. No doubt there are some wealthy malefactors who would like to have the job just once.

A Pittsburg man complains to the police that he had his pocket picked

York. Evidently hadn't heard of the pay-as-you-enter plan.

A Savage Editor

The average country editor is a chump. He will submit to the abuse of some old, misery skinflint or Shylock in the community for years, and when death in all its merciful kindness removes the worthless old carcass to a place that has possibly been eager and yawning for years to even up his devilish score, Mr. Editor, in laudatory language and half-column space, will pour out his hypocritical sympathy touchingly, yet, pathetically. Not so with the Call. The next old reprobate that shuffles off may die with this troubled fact on his mind, that we are going to everlastingly lambast him as soon as we have proof that his grouchy life has been snuffed out and he is on his way home. Some of you old reprobates, be you one or many, had better take due notice and come in and "make good" with us before the last call, for there is not a drop of sentimental hypocrisy or sniveling pretense in our beart.—Porcell Call.

A Stiff One.

It was raining outside, and little interrogative Irma was in one of her worst or at least most trying moods.
Father, busily writing at his desk, had already reproved her several times for bothering him with useless questions.
"I say, pa, what?"
"Ask your mother!"
"Honest, pa, this isn't a silly one this time."
"All right this once. What is it?"
"Well, if the end of the world was to come and the earth was destroyed
while a man was up in an airship, where would he land when he came down?"—Everybody's Magazine.

No Cause For Uneasiness.

"I want you," said the penurious head of the firm to his confidential secretary, "to look into the case of young Robinson. We are paying him $17 a week, and he is living in finer style than I am."
"I don't think it will be necessary to do any investigating on that account. I can explain it at once. He is a young man of fairly good tastes."— Smart Set.

Cleaning the Stage.

"We hope," said the spokesman of the committee, "to enlist your support in favor of a clean stage."
"You have it," responded the theatrical manager heartily. "Why, almost every one of my plays opens with a girl dusting everything in sight."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Provident.

"Don't you think May is perfectly reckless in the way she gets divorces?"
"Oh, no!" replied the second actress, dabbling on a little more paint. "She never gets a divorce from one husband until she has another under contract."— Philadelphia Ledger.

Sour Grapes.

Clara—When I refused Tom three weeks ago he declared that it would be the death of him.
Maude—Well, it wasn't. He proposed to me last week, and I accepted him.
Clara—Oh, then he must have meant a living death.—St. Louis Republic.

A Profitable Business.

"I hear Miss Curlylocks made $10,- 000 in letters?"
"So she did."
"Why, I never heard before she was anything of a literary personage."
"Neither is she. They were the letters in her breach of promise suit."— Baltimore American.

Distressing.

"Ah, yes," related the foreign nobleman as he rubbed his hands. "When a beautiful girl found that her father had selected me as her future husband she was a picture."
"What a picture of distress?" asked the sensible American girl.—Chicago News.

ECZEMA LODGES IN THE SKIN

Not a Blood Disease—Cured by Oil of Wintergreen Compound

For many years eczema was supposed to be a blood disease and was erroneously treated as such, but now the best authorities agree that eczema is only a skin disease and must be cured through the skin. The eminent skin specialist Dr. D. D. Dennis, first discovered the eczema germ and his discovery was quickly taken up in Germany and France.

To kill the eczema germ and at the same time heal the skin, Dr. Dennis compounded oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. The remedy is a liquid, not a mere salve, hence it sinks right into the pores of the skin. Washing with this oil of wintergreen compound seems to take away the itch at once, soon the scales drop away and the disease disappears. The prescription has now been used so long as to have proven its absolute merit and we do not hesitate to express our confidence in D. D. D. Prescription as used with
D. D. D. Soap.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED Old People

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor I consulted told me that I would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ERRA DONOVAN, Box 299, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

We are positive it will benefit every old person who will give it a trial. If it doesn't we will refund their money.

will have the call at the Auto Show, Duquesne Garden, Pittsburgh, March 27th to April 1st. Spaces 40-41-42

These cars are the product of many years of experience, together with ample capital and adequate manufacturing facilities. We do not believe such a product is possible without preceding years of experience, no matter what the equipment or inventive genius of the maker may be. We have been building automobiles for ten years, and gas engines for still a longer period of time. To-day the Oldsmobile, irrespective of price, is known as one of the world's great cars; price considered, it is the standard of value everywhere. The logical car at the logical price.

READ THE MAIL

By Grace Of Gladys.

By CARL WILLIAMS.

Copyrighted, 1909, by Associated Literary Press.

She was the child star, the youthful prodigy of the Little Gladys Dramatic company. What made it worse, her doting papa was the manager of the show, which played a repertory for a week in the smaller towns, always dramas in which the small star could shine to advantage.

As a stage attraction the child was a wonder. She could play little girls who, like all the good, die young, and she also played rough soubrette parts with a dash that made more important managers wish that there were no children's societies in the large cities to prevent her appearance in the big theaters.

Her father, Joe Glidden, had tried the cities, but after half a season he had returned to the country, and the child was a favorite and where children's societies were unknown.

There, among old friends, he felt safe once more. He swaggered about as he had done before he knew what it was to regard every stranger approaching the box office as a possible police officer in plain clothes.

Gladys, as though to make up for her time, became more incorrigible than ever.

Versatility, her precious dramatic gift, she displayed only on the stage. The members of her father's company never were treated to any private displays of the angel children that Gladys played to perfection on the stage.

In private life the child was steadily and consistently a torment. Jack Trent and Elvia Mordant, of her patient support, were her especial victims.

Gladys' sharp eyes had discovered the birth of love even before Elvia was certain of her own feelings and announced that fact to the rest of the company at supper that evening. Her shrill, piping voice, trained to fill a theater, reached to every corner of the dining room, and the gleeful statement that "Miss Mordant is awfully gone on Jack Trent" set the room in a roar.

With flaming face Elvia sprang to her feet and rushed from the room, the laughter of the company and the other guests ringing in her ears long after she had reached her room.

Scolding tears stained her pillow, but she was at last certain that she did love Trent, and had he only known, he had cause to be grateful to the youngster. Instead he savagely suggested to Joe Glidden that a good spanking would be the salvation of the child.

Glidden knew better than to take the advice. Once, and once only, had Gladys been spanked. It had happened on a Sunday, and business was bad all the following week, because the child played abominably in spite of all threats. Nor until the promise was made that she should not be spanked any more did she appear at her best again.

Glidden only smiled indulgently at Trent's suggestion, but Gladys loved the man for it, and thereafter she selected Jack and Elvia as her special victims.

It did not matter that on the trains they sat at opposite ends of the car. Gladys would discover Trent gazing intently into space and call attention to the fact that he could not keep his eyes off Elvia.

The company laughed at her pert remarks, because they were selfishly glad that Gladys found vent for her love of mischief that did not involve themselves.

Their laughter encouraged the child to fresh endeavors, and since the two victims would not provide her with material for jokes off the stage she formed the habit of giving their performance on the stage.

Jack and Elvia were cast for lovers' roles, and it was disconcerting to hear a sibilant "Ah!" as their lips met in a single caress. Only in the theater did they see each other now, so Gladys made those stage scenes moments of torture.

Not for a moment did the child relent, and her father only smiled indulgently at Trent's protests and threats to leave. Engagements were not easy to be had in the middle of the season, and Glidden knew that Trent would not take chances with a mother to support.

He had no wish to lose Trent, who was a clever man and worth double what he was getting, but there seemed small danger of his resigning, and it was not an easy matter to control Gladys.

No one read better than the child the true state of affairs, and she made the most of it. More than once Trent made up his mind to leave in the hope that Gladys might then leave Elvia in peace, but Elvia would not hear of it. By suggesting that he would leave her to bear the brunt of the child's enmity she dissuaded him from his purpose.

But the crisis was bound to come. Gladys, with a sense of false security, passed all limit. The favorite play with the public was one of her "angel" parts, and the time came to the end of the act showed the child at her mother's knee praying that her father, who had been estranged, might return.

He is lurking behind the curtains madly, jealous and waiting to kill his wife, when the child is put to bed. The naive plea was him to a belief in his wife's innocence.

It was Saturday night, and the little theater was packed to the doors. Elvia and Jack had both been accepted

Last Number of High School Lecture Course

Edward P. Elliott the last on the High School entertainment course appeared at the school hall last night. The attendance was not what it might have been, but all present were much pleased, and the entertainment was a fitting one to close the present platform season in this place.

Mr. Elliott took for his topic, "The Man of the Hour." He drew his characters from the play of this name, and acted the various parts, which drew from them the best thoughts. Those present thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment, which was in reality better than the play itself, for the idea of the author was more thoroughly carried out than it could have been by a company of actors.

The committee of arrangements of the course at the end of this number find themselves to be in debt $110.50. There will likely be nothing done in the matter however, the members of the committee making up the deficiency from their own pockets. It is more than likely that there will not be any course attractions in Charleroi the coming year. If so some other committee will have to take the matter up.

In the divorce proceedings of Nettie C. Sarver against John W. Sarver, a former well known officer of Monongahela and also former alderman, of the rule on the respondent to show cause why he should not pay his wife alimony, the respondent has filed his answer. Sarver is now a policeman at South Brownsville, Fayette county.

In his answer he denies that he is guilty of cruel and barbarous treatment or that he ever offered such indignities to his wife as to make her life burdensome, and compelling her to withdraw from her home. He sets forth that in October of 1908 his wife had him arrested for desertion and non-support and that at that time they entered into a mutual agreement, whereby he was to pay her $20 a month in lieu of all demands, suits and controversies. By this agreement, he avers, they agreed to live apart from each other for the rest of their natural lives, to carry on whatever business they saw fit, and to reside wherever they pleased. This agreement he alleges was accepted by both.

He avers that he carried out the agreement until the filing of the libel in divorce, paying her $5 each week. As to the wages that he makes he denies that he is earning from $75 to $100 a month, but avers he is employed as a policeman at $60 a month. As to his property he says he has one lot in this county valued at $150 and a lot in Allegheny county, valued at $200. He avers he has been advised and believes that he cannot legally be required to pay the libellant the alimony that she demands, and he asks that the rule be dismissed.

The Boston Belles
Gaiety, frivolity, hilarity and high jingles will bring matters to a lively climax during the evening of April 1st, at the Cyle theatre, where the Boston Belles will play a most welcomed visit. Those who are fond of clean, but funny burlesque will find just the real thing in "Just Before the Battle, Mother" and "What Joy in Joyland," two humorous and well-pleasing farces, with almost endless amusing alterations. Quite an array of vaudeville features add to the merit of Boston Belles offerings, which is considered the strongest card Manager Hastings has presented this season.

There is a certain dash and go to the performance affording a continuous whirl of merit and display of color, brilliancy and beauty.

A score of fascinating young women furnish a beautiful frame to the lively picture, which presents itself not only in bright and glittering colors but which prominently display an over-bubbling fountain of wholesome and delightful comedy.

The management has been very careful in the selection of the female members of the company. The girls with this organization are bewitching and attractive and do not belong to the species of faded beauties.

Remodeling Bar of Walfred

William R. Gaut the proprietor of the Walfred hotel on McKean avenue the only one applicant for a liquor license from Charleroi, and who was favored by the judges is getting his hotel in readiness for the opening of the bar on May 1st. He is remodeling it and fixing it up in general.

Name Nurse for Dispensaries

Miss Marie Watson of Monessen has been named as a nurse for the Monessen and Monongahela tuberculosis dispensaries. The lady recommended by Miss Ganior the matron at the Washington hospital.

Sacramento.

According to the Sacramento agent of the Oldsmobile cars, the factory that would turn out an automobile with a motor boat attachment would be a big success in Sacramento valley. "I do not have any trouble demonstrating with my Oldsmobile when the water is only up to the top of the hood, but when the fender resembles a bathtub it is about time to have a motor boat attachment," says the bustling Capital City agent.

Notice to Tax Payers

"All persons whose occupation taxes for the years 1906 and 1907 are not yet paid can save $1.00 additional costs by paying the same before the end of the present month. After April 1st the constable will assist me in making collections."

Meeting Postponed Until Coming Year

The meeting which was called of the Afro-American Republican league of Washington county which was to have been held yesterday at Washington was by the consent of the members postponed until the year 1910, when matters will be in better shape to take up. The members of the executive board were present yesterday. Addison Ebbers of Charleroi is a member of the board.

Wife Holds Knot Preacher Ties it

Yesterday at Monessen Sidney Watkins and Miss Mollie Metz, well known young people of that place were quietly married at the parsonage of Rev. H. O. MacDonald of the First Presbyterian church. The feature of the wedding was that the wife of the pastor read the words which bound the couple, and acted as a mouth piece for her husband, who through illness from quinsy is unable to speak.
